Do you attend a university, college or trade school and are passionate about mental health and supporting your peers?

Become a Good2Talk Campus Coordinator!

Job Type: Volunteer Position; 2022-2023 Academic Year

Job Description

Good2Talk Campus Coordinators are an integral part of maintaining a healthy campus community. By becoming a Good2Talk Campus Coordinator, you will be helping to reduce stigma around seeking mental health supports by raising awareness of the Good2Talk service through in-person (as allowed) campaigns, events and other initiatives. Don’t worry – we’ll provide plenty of training so you’re more than prepared to do this!

Duties and Responsibilities

- Promote and advertise Good2Talk – including planning and operating events, distributing promotional materials, and running in-person or virtual presentations to students and/or staff
- Act as a resource to students on behalf of Good2Talk by providing general information, making referrals to the service and answering questions
- Connect with students and staff one-on-one to provide additional assistance or resources
- Collaborate with students and staff to support campus-wide events/programs
- Participate through the attendance of meetings and communication with Good2Talk staff
- Document marketing/event insights to report to Good2Talk staff
- Complete program evaluations

Skills/Requirements

- Full-time student attending a university, college or trade school returning on-campus (as allowed) for the 2022/2023 school year
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Responsible, well-organized and strong time management skills
- Passionate about mental health

What’s in it for you?

- Reference letters & resume building
- Additional free training opportunities
- The opportunity to support your peers & engage in community building!
